

Bangor RD 2 Boy Dies Of Injuries Caused When Hit By Car

Five-Year-Old Hammerstein Child Killed

A five-year-old Bangor RD 2 boy died last night of injuries suffered when he was hit by a car driven by a Portland woman near that borough.

Bethlehem State Police, who were in charge of the investigation, said the boy's name was Larry Hammerstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hammerstein, Bangor RD2.

Driver of the car was Mrs. Lorraine Singer, Portland, police said. The accident occurred one mile north of Portland on "old Route 611," police said.

Mrs. Singer was operating her car northward on the route, according to police. The child apparently ran from between two parked cars, police said.

A technical charge of manslaughter was preferred against Mrs. Singer and she provided $1,000 bail, according to Chief of Police Jesse Felker, who assisted State Troopers Robert E. Cutney and John Krivak in the investigation.

Mrs. Singer was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Hutchinson of Martins Creek.

Immediately following the accident the child was taken to the office of Dr. Eugene A. Rushin in Portland, officials said. Dr. Rushin reported he had applied emergency treatment to the child.

When the boy was brought into the office, Dr. Rushin said, he had apparently stopped breathing. The physician said he applied oxygen and restored the breathing. The child's pulse was audible, but faint, with the breathing restored, Dr. Rushin said.

Monroe County General Hospital had been notified. The hospital ambulance arrived on the scene and the boy was taken in the ambulance to East Stroudsburg, Dr. Rushin said.

Officials said the Hammerstein child was dead on arrival at the hospital, however. The ambulance arrived at 8:35 p.m.

Dr. Charles Rushmore, Monroe County coroner, examined the body. Cause of the child's death, Dr. Rushmore said, was "internal injuries."

The body was released to the William Horton funeral home. The boy had been struck on the left side, suffered abdominal injuries, the coroner said.

Loyalty Board Clears Bunche

New York (AP) — A U. S. federal board yesterday cleared Dr. Ralph Bunche, top American official in the U. N. Secretariat, of any suspicion of disloyalty to the United States. Bunche, the first Negro to win a Nobel Peace Prize, had undergone two days of questioning by the board in secret session.

The board, set up last July 29 to investigate U. S. citizens employed by the U. N., announced the decision through its chairman, Pierce J. Gerety of Southport, Conn.

Gerety told a news conference that the six members, after two meetings with Bunche, "unanimously reached the conclusion that there is no doubt as to the loyalty of Dr. Bunche to the government of the United States." Gerety would not say what the allegations were that had led to the hearing.

Bunche is the top-ranking American in the U. N. as principal director of its Department of Trusteeship and Information. From Non-self-governing Territories.

He is slated to become undersecretary to Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld. He won fame by working out the 1949 U. N. armistice that stopped Arab-Jewish warfare in Palestine.

He had spent almost all of Tuesday and Thursday in secret session with the board at the Federal Building here. Manning Johnson and Leonard Patterson, Negro ex-Communists once on the party's National Committee, also were known to have gone before the board.

In between his appearances before the board, Bunche and his wife were guests of President Eisenhower at a state dinner in the White House for Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia.

Senate Gets Housing Bill

Washington (AP) — A comprehensive housing bill was completed by the Senate Banking Committee yesterday, ready for the Senate floor, where some Democrats are expected to try to knock out a key section.

Sen. Maybank (D-SC), with strong Southern support, plans to offer an amendment which would strip all public housing authority from the bill. He took his stand against any more public housing projects about a week after the Supreme Court handed down a ruling which Maybank interpreted as banning segregation of Negroes and whites in such projects.

Smathers Demands U.S. Meet Red Challenge In Guatemala

Washington (AP)—Sen. Smathers (D-Fla.) said yesterday the shipment of Communist arms to Guatemala is "Russian intervention in Latin-America and emphasizes a challenge this nation has no choice but to meet."

"We face the ugly and infuriating fact that we now find Russian intervention in this hemisphere on an alarming scale, in violation of the Monroe Doctrine," Smathers said.

"The diabolical scheme of the enemy has become apparent, and challenges not only us in the United States but all members of the great organization of American States."

Smathers spoke out as the Swedish freighter that carried 2,000 tons of Red arms to Guatemala changed course and put in at Key West, Fla., to enable U. S. State Department officials to question her captain and crew.

Government officials flown from Washington went aboard the 4,600-ton freighter in Key West Harbor at 8 a. m. and the State Department said:

"The officers and crew members who are being questioned are co-operating on a purely voluntary basis."

Smathers said the "pattern of intervention" in Guatemala is the same as Soviet agents used in bringing West European nations under Moscow's domination.

Guatemala (AP) — Guatemala issued two emergency regulations yesterday as a result of the crisis with the United States.

They require that:

All private planes in effect be grounded under an order banning cross-country flights;

Any message written in code or in a language other than Spanish must be accompanied by a Spanish translation filed at the cable office.

This meant all press messages in English must have a Spanish translation attached for study by a government agent.

Meanwhile, a secret radio urging Guatemalans to fight Communism and attacking the government, continued its broadcasts despite reports that officials had smashed it.

Outside of this development the capital settled down to normal after a jittery 24-hour period in which a plane rained anti-Red leaflets over the city. Airline service was resumed.

Smith referred to a denunciation of the United Nations by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov two weeks ago and to similar declarations by Red China's Foreign Minister Chou En-lai and North Korea's Foreign Minister Nam Il. Smith observed:

"What the Soviet Union, through its delegate, is telling the world from Geneva is that it rejects the principle of collective security, that it intends to do as it pleases without regard to truth or justice or peace."

Non-Communist Asian countries have expressed belief in the United Nations as the cornerstone of their security against aggression.

1,400 Workers On Strike At Cement Plants

Northampton (AP) — Some 370 employees of the Universal Atlas Cement Co. walked out yesterday, bringing to 1,400 the number of workers on strike in the cement industry's 17 plants in the Lehigh Valley.

Three plants of the Lehigh Portland Cement Co. were struck May 11 and employees of the Dragon Cement Co. walked out May 19.

All of the strikers are members of Dist. 1, United Cement, Lime and Gypsum Workers Union, AFL.

The district embraces the Lehigh Valley area of Pennsylvania and parts of Maryland and New Jersey. They have been working without a contract since April 1.

Holiday Notice

The Daily Record will not be published Monday, May 31, because of the observance of Memorial Day.

Contractor To Open Road Today Noon

Cresco — Holiday weekend traffic will move over Route 90 without interference and detour signs advising motorists to travel on Route 290 into Canadensis will be removed Tuesday, it was announced last night.

Cresco of Lee B. Marks Construction Co. will wind up their first phase of construction about noon today, permitting traffic to continue through this community into Mountainhome, James Lick, superintendent and Marks disclosed.

The announcement culminated a stepped-up program by Marks workers to comply with requests of resort operators and businessmen here that the road be ready by Memorial Day.

Arthur Dinstel, Monroe County superintendent for the State Highway Department, revealed almost simultaneously that his office has been advised by the Allentown district headquarters to remove detour signs Tuesday.

This latter action followed a request of the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau members. Harold Swenson, executive secretary, said he wrote to the highway department office asking for removal of signs leading to the Route 90 construction, and also asked that highway maps be revised informing the traveling public no detours will exist beyond June 1.

Licks said his men have been working overtime all week in an attempt to have the road surfaced with two layers of stone, rolled and "dusted" by Saturday.

Weather was an important factor, Licks said. "Last week we lost two days because of rain."

Licks said his men worked late last night and will be on the job early this morning to finish in time for a noon opening.

One intersection near the railroad station will not be in perfect condition for the weekend, but it will be passable, Licks said.

Marks said he hopes motorists will use caution when crossing the 1,000-foot extension north of the DL&W tracks. "The slower they drive, the better it will be for us to do an even more thorough job next week," the construction company owner said.

Traffic detour was erected last month, sending motorists over a temporary route into Canadensis on Route 290, and to Mountainhome on Route 390. Only the section of Route 90 from Paradise Valley to the junction with Route 171 was opened to all traffic. From there to Cresco railroad station local traffic was permitted.

Early this month Marks said it was "physically impossible" to lift the Cresco detour until late July unless some temporary bypass road was approved to parallel the existing highway.

Approval to construct such a bypass was given by the State Highway Department after businessmen and resort operators protested the detour will seriously affect business this summer. They estimated that last year's detour cost about $350,000 in lost business.

Next week Marks employees will begin the construction of the temporary bypass just south of the railroad tracks a distance of about 500 feet. There will be no traffic holdup, however, Licks said, because motorists will be able to use existing Route 90.

Meanwhile, Marks crews are continuing the construction of a two lane, steel bridge over the railroad tracks just west of present Route 90. When this is finished Route 90 traffic will use the bridge and the crossing at the tracks will be barred.

Senford, N. Y. (AP) — A wild mother duck sat snugly on her nest yesterday, while home builder Louis Hirsch paced the grounds like an expectant father.

"That's just the way I feel," said Hirsch, whose cooperation in the duck's family-raising project so far has cost him an estimated $1,184. "The situation has become critical."

For five days now, Hirsch has kept a bulldozer and crane crew idle, rather than disturb the mallard's nest in the center of an area of trees and brush being cleared for construction of 96 houses.

"I'll hold off as long as my money lasts," Hirsch said. "But I hope the little ones hatch soon."

The drama of the ducks has stirred keen emotions in this suburban community on Long Island's South Shore. It also has reached near crisis proportion in Hirsch's building company.

"My partner resents the delay and says we're wasting money," Hirsch said worriedly. "But I don't think so when living things are involved. I hate to destroy anything living. It's not human."

Workmen, not having anything else to do, yesterday erected a little sign, saying: "Maternity ward—nature at work."

About 40 school children came out to visit the scene, and the papa mallard, determined to preserve his mistress' privacy, kept them at a distance with furious, quacking dives.

The normal incubation period for duck eggs is 26 days, but no one is sure how long the process had gone on before the construction machinery was halted by the male mallard's outraged defensive maneuvers.

Committee Votes To Subpoena Ike, Brownell Say Power Can Not Be Usurped

Washington (AP) — Senators investigating the McCarthy-Army row subpoenaed some of their own files yesterday in a topsy-turvy sequence linked with the McCarthy-Eisenhower clash over secret information.

Before the confused session ended, Acting Chairman Mundt (R-SD) halfway withdrew the subpoena. And Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) came up with a demand that the Army be forced to produce a host of its own files.

This new storm, which found Democratic senators staunchly championing President Eisenhower's cause, blew up as McCarthy aide Roy M. Cohn was under cross-examination, and it left him sitting silently on the witness stand for much of the afternoon.

Earlier Cohn denied under oath that he "declared war" on the Army in a fit of rage because he was barred from a secret radar laboratory at Ft. Monmouth, N. J.

In the day's other major development, McCarthy announced another of his aides, Francis P. Carr, will be available for questioning later in the investigation.

The four Republicans on the subcommittee voted earlier this week to drop all charges against Carr and to dismiss him as a witness.

The three Democrats called this a "whitewash" and some influential Republicans didn't like it, either.

McCarthy's announcement quelled that controversy, but it didn't take long for the new one to arise. This is how it happened:

Special Counsel Ray H. Jenkins—and Democratic senators—wanted to see some evidence that Schine really did do subcommittee work during the 16 leaves he was granted in his eight weeks of basic training at Ft. Dix, N. J.

Cohn offered to produce some reports and memoranda. But McCarthy said the subcommittee would have to subpoena them. So Jenkins hastily dashed off a subpoena.

It was served on Cohn. But McCarthy said the subpoena was (Continued On Page Five)

Greek Shipping Tycoon Agrees To $4 Million Settlement, Return Of Vessels To U.S.

Washington (AP)—Stavros Niarchos, the Greek shipping tycoon with headquarters in London, made a multimillion-dollar settlement with the United States government yesterday for the score of vessels he illegally obtained from the U. S. surplus fleet after World War II.

The settlement involved, among other things, an agreement to hand the vessels back to the United States, along with a four-million-dollar indemnity payment.

Niarchos' attorneys accepted these terms in a conference at the Justice Department, where they left a check for one million dollars as down payment on the indemnity.

They then proceeded to the Federal District Court where, on behalf of seven corporations owned by Niarchos or associated with his worldwide shipping operations, they entered guilty pleas to three indictments charging false statements and conspiracy to defraud the United States in the surplus ship transactions.

Presiding Judge Bolitha Laws adopted the government's recommendation for maximum penalties and assessed fines totaling $110,000 against the companies. This was paid on the spot, in 110 one-thousand-dollar bills.

The indictments were returned last year under the laws forbidding foreigners to acquire the surplus vessels, except with specific Maritime Commission consent.

Six Americans are charged with conspiring with the Niarchos group. These six include Joseph E. Casey, former Democratic congressman from Massachusetts, who is alleged to have managed a syndicate in which many prominent persons participated and reputedly made fabulous profits in surplus ship dealings after World War II.

Bagnell, Mo. (AP) — Four persons drowned when a wind and rain squall swamped an excursion boat on the Lake of the Ozarks yesterday. The others aboard were rescued.

The pilot of the boat estimated there were about a dozen passengers on the craft.

Authorities listed the dead as Mrs. Dick Lamberty and her 2-year-old son, of Fremont, Neb.; Mrs. Letha Eliza Rockwell, about 50, Belle Plaine, Iowa, and her daughter, Rosalind Ruth, Rockwell, 17.

Sen. Symington (D-MO), seated right next to Mundt, said that if McCarthy thought Mundt's cigar was hard on him, "What about me?"

Washington (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) raised a pungent point of order yesterday against the cigar being smoked by Sen. Mundt (R-SD) at the McCarthy-Army hearings.

"With the wind blowing on me, it's awfully hard on me," McCarthy told Mundt. He said he wished the South Dakotan would put away his cigar and go back to puffing on his pipe.

Sen. Symington (D-MO), seated right next to Mundt, said that if McCarthy thought Mundt's cigar was hard on him, "What about me?"

Ike, Brownell Say Power Can Not Be Usurped

By Wilnot Hercher

Washington (AP) — A great constitutional clash between the Eisenhower administration and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) came to a head yesterday as the White House put out a statement declaring presidential responsibility "can't be usurped by any individual who may seek to set himself above the laws of our land."

Bearing the name of Atty. Gen. Brownell and approved by President Eisenhower, the statement was a reply to the Wisconsin senator's public call to two million federal workers in the executive branch to give him secret information despite presidential orders to the contrary.

McCarthy came back swiftly with an assertion that he is going to continue to get information from within the government whenever he can, and protect the sources of that information.

"I hope to remain in the Senate and see many presidents come and go," he told reporters, "Regardless of who is in the White House—and there is nothing personal involved in this—as chairman of the Senate Investigations subcommittee I am charged with the important duty of giving the American people a clear picture of the operations of their government."

Government employees, he said, are "in duty bound to give me information even though some bureaucratic may have stamped it secret."

The White House statement declared the executive branch of the government has the sole responsibility for law enforcement, including that in the field of national security.

McCarthy said he did not dispute that the attorney general is charged with enforcing the laws.

But he said it is the responsibility of his subcommittee "to expose any cases where there is failure to enforce the laws."

The big storm blew up at Thursday's session of the McCarthy Army hearings, when McCarthy said to those present and millions watching on their television screens:

"... I would like to notify those two million federal employees that I feel it is their duty to give us any information which they have about graft, corruption, Communists, treason, and that there is no loyalty to a superior which can tower above and beyond their loyalty to their country."

James C. Hagerty, presidential press secretary, told newsmen he had conferred with Eisenhower and Brownell yesterday morning about McCarthy's remarks. Then he said the attorney general had directed him to issue this statement in Brownell's name with the approval of the President:

"The obligations and duties of the executive, judicial, and legislative branches of the government are defined by the Constitution."

"The executive branch of the government has the sole and fundamental responsibility under the Constitution for the enforcement of our laws and presidential orders. They include those to protect the security of our nation which were carefully drawn up for this purpose."

"That responsibility can't be usurped by any individual who may seek to set himself above the laws of our land or to override orders of the President of the United States to federal employees of the executive branch of the government."

Vatican City (AP) — More than 400 bishops from many parts of the world assembled yesterday for the canonization of Pius X, the 25th pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church and the sixth in 1,000 years to become a saint.

By today, when Pope Pius XII is carried on his portable throne into St. Peter's Square to preside at the solemn ceremony, the number of cardinals, archbishops, and bishops is expected to be about 500.

In addition there will be thousands of priests and nuns and hundreds of thousands of Catholic faithful in St. Peter's Square to honor the humble man who is to be sainted only 49 years after his death on Aug. 20, 1914.

Construction Of 96 Homes At Standstill Until Wild Duck Hatches Nest Of Young

Prophet Raises Boy From Dead; Saves Israel From Syrians
Scripture—11 Kings 4:37-48:23
By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

We have a beautiful lesson to study today. It shows us how if we are good to others without thought of reward, great good may come to us.

The prophet Elisha passed through the town of Shunem or Shunam (we are giving both spellings of the name) the town thought to have been about three miles from Carmel.

In Shunem lived "a great woman" meaning, probably, one who was wealthy. She invited the prophet to partake of food in her home, so that when he passed through the town he went to her house to eat.

The woman's perceptions were keen and she was sure that this man to whom she was kind was no common person, so she said to her husband, "Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, which passeth by us continually. Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick; and it shall be, when he cometh to us, he shall turn to his room."

Elisha had no regular home. He went about doing Jehovah's will, and he must have appreciated this homelike place in which to lay his head when he was weary.

Elisha had a servant who traveled with him by the name of Gehazi. He was a wicked, unscrupulous fellow, so Elisha asked him to call his horses, and when she came to him he asked her what he could do for her for being so kind to him.

"Wouldst thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host?" If he had done so she would have been honored.

Her reply was typical of the great-hearted woman who is kind and thoughtful for others without thinking of reward: "I dwell among mine own people."

She was the good neighbor, ready and willing to do whatever she could at any time for any neighbor in need of help. We all know at least one woman who is such a neighbor.

The servant, Gehazi, guessed that there was one thing, however, that the woman yearned for above all others. She was childless and this was a great grief to her, so when Elisha asked him, "What then is to be done for her?" he answered, "She hath no child."

Elisha said, "Call her," and when she stood before him again he told her that she would have a son. She doubted that this could be true, but in due time she did have a son, and her great joy.

The boy grew, but one day when he was in the field with his father, he said, "My head, my head." His father called a lad and told him to carry the child to his mother. He sat on her lap until noon and then died.

His mother carried him to the prophet's room and laid him on his bed, then she set out to find

Members Continue Work On New Gilbert Church

Gilbert — Officers and members of the Evangelical and Reformed Church here took advantage of this week's favorable weather to continue work on the new church building.

Ground for the native-stone edifice was broken in 1950, following destruction of the former church by fire in May, 1949, two days before Rev. Alton Albright arrived in Gilbert to assume the pastorate of the Pleasant Valley charge.

Members have devoted much time to both interior and exterior work, and last week finished erecting pews in the building. Services have been held in the new church since Christmas. This week seeding of grounds around the church occupied most of the work chores.

THE THRESHOLD!

The Baccalaureate speaker was right. This was the threshold of life. Beyond today, spanning the years, were many paths each leading to a different goal. Someone in Bob Adams' position need only to choose his path.

Bob wasn't frightened. The choice would not be difficult. In fact, it had already been made.

Not that anyone had told Bob which profession to follow . . . which opportunity would be most rewarding. No! Those decisions were not yet final. . .

But one decision was final. He had made it some years before — on the day he had become a member of the Church.

Bob had decided to build his life on faith . . . on the principles the Church had instilled in his conscience . . . on the truth and the power and the love of JESUS CHRIST. Bob Adams had chosen HIS Path!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Memorial Day

The original significance of the observance of Memorial, or Decoration Day, has been dimmed by the effects of wars far more terrible than the conflict between the States and, this year, by the constant "cold war" pressure from an enemy bent on world disunity and world conquest.

Eighty-five years ago, back in 1869, Gen. John A. Logan, commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, ordered observance of the first Memorial Day on May 30.

It was intended to be a Memorial tribute to members of the G.A.R. who gave their lives in a battle "to preserve the union."

The 1954 Memorial Day observance will not forget members of the G.A.R. who gave their lives "to preserve the union," but emphasis will be on reflection on more modern wars, on the precarious peace we cling to so dearly each day of our lives.

Mixed with the prayers for veterans of all wars, and the loved ones remembered on Decoration Day with a graveside flower or plant, will be earnest prayers for guidance and strength against the most terrible foe free people of the world have ever faced—the constant menace of Communist world conquest.

Slow Down And Live!

Just a reminder that the National Safety Council has its forecasts of above the 340 figure for highway deaths—starting at midnight last night and ending midnight Monday.

There's one way to confound these estimates.

"Slow Down And Live!"

Every police officer, state, county and in municipalities has been alerted to enforce the law against SPEED.

So if you have an "in a hurry" complex as you move along this vacation week-end, you can expect the worst, and you'll deserve it.

Why don't you "LET DEATH HAVE A HOLIDAY?" SLOW DOWN AND LIVE.

Carefree Democrats

Democratic politicians from the country over were in Washington recently for their biggest rally since July, 1952.

They had a wonderful time. It was easy—they are not in power.

Work vs. Play

The Post Office Department is running a deficit of $425 million this year.

The postage rate increases proposed by Postmaster General Summerfield would reduce that deficit by $250 million.

But Congress must approve them.

Sen. Frank Carlson, chairman of the Senate Post Office Committee, says it is waiting for the House of Representatives to act on the matter.

The Post Office Committee in the House has approved the rate increases, but the measure has been lying on the shelf in the Rules Committee for two months.

Down at Daytona Beach, Fla., baseball teams composed of Republican and Democratic Congressmen fought it out. The Republicans won.

And several years ago a fellow named Harry Truman won an election by running against what he called a "do nothing" Congress.

The Talent Scout's Ratings
A TV agent's report to a video vice-president on Washington talent as revealed on the "All's Video on the Potomac" show:

Secretary Stevens: Clean cut, good personality, nice wardrobe, will travel. Does monologues. Gives top rendition of Tennyson's "My good blade carves the casques of men; my stout lance thrushes sure; my strength is as the strength of ten, because my heart is pure." Formerly with team of Stevens and Adams. Previously seen in "Would You Repeat That Statement?" and "I Repeat Your Statement."

Senator McCarthy: Seasoned trouper; wide road experience; will go anywhere; fresh from magic specialty number "Sawing a Photo in Half"; has hard-hitting act featuring team of juvenile quiz kids. Previous acts: "Point of No Return," "Point Yes or No" and "Point of Order."

Ray Jenkins: Sensational new talent from Tennessee Drama School; excels as a "heavy" in old-fashioned slambang thrillers; a killer-diller in any show needing fast action, big dramatic moments, suspense, etc. Is type that can wrestle lions, bridge rapids under fire, hunt buffalo, explore jungles. Perfect in Tombstone, Deadwood or Abilene frontier day shows as sheriff or posse leader; would have been tops in "High Noon." Plays bull fiddle and can throw voice.

Roy Cohn: "Youth Wants To Know" type; was child wonder, Park Row, N. Y. circuit; does fast patter; Overanxious and tends to press; blows stack but has pep and color. Was seen in "This Means War," "Schine On, Monmouth Man" and "This Car Goes No Further." Does fire dance.

Joseph Welch: If you want man for folksy roles, here he is; can double in Pickwickian and Old Homestead parts. Better than Bill Bacon in "Lightnin'." Would be a natural in "Way Down East." Doesn't like to tour. No late shows.

John Adams: Western background; brief experience with Washington Stock Players and the Stevens Straw Hat Theater Group: deadpan type, ambitious and determined. Will travel, and may have to.

Senator Symington: Winning personality; good dresser; long experience Potomac Players but has been more recently with Missouri Dramatic Guild. Willing to go anywhere, but prefers White House.

Senator McClelland: Arkansas performer; always trying; can stop show; if he can't stop it he can always delay it.

Senator Jackson: Young; photogenic; loves TV and will do anything short of tap dance, work on aerial trapeze or imitate Four Hawaiians.

Senator Dirksen: Imitates bird calls; does soft shoe; effective in costume parts and "Fireman, save my child" bits.

Senator Mundt: Good master of ceremonies; does specialty as infinitive - splitter; doubles in brass.

Assistant Counsel Pruett: Testing; testing.

"Divine Board" won a race the other day and Shudda Haddini says, "I got a hunch on him when I found myself overboard for the day." . . . The Danbury haters strike has ended after 10 months. . . . That was one fight we always thought could be settled at the drop of a hat. . . . Tommy Henrich, ex-Yankee baseball star, is now president of a brewery. . . . Baseball and beer are so interwoven these days that the trip either way can be made on a short infield hit.

Robert S. Allen Reports

McCarthy Plans Check On Eisenhower's CIA Set-Up

Washington—Senator Joe McCarthy is secretly planning to investigate the highly confidential Central Intelligence Agency.

CIA is directly under the President and reports to him. Striving zealously to assist McCarthy, a strategically-placed ally is doing his utmost to block an extraordinary bi-partisan effort to protect this key executive agency from the kind of mauling given the Army.

The helpful friend is Senator William Jenner (R., Ind.), chairman of the Rules Committee, of which McCarthy is also a member. They are working closely together in this backstage tug-of-war, which has been completely blacked out by the sensational Army-McCarthy hearings. But the details of the secret McCarthy-Jenner gunning for the CIA are on a par with those of the public proceedings.

Following are highlights of this extremely significant under-cover struggle: Since last winter it has been an open secret that the Central Intelligence Agency was on McCarthy's probing list. This was "officially" confirmed during the Army hearings in an inadvertent disclosure by Roy Cohn. Testifying about attempts to get a commission for Private Sehine, Cohn said no favors were sought from CIA because McCarthy considered it a "lush target."

Throughout these months, it has also been no secret that Allen Dulles, head of CIA, would not tolerate a congressional investigation. He holds the agency is in the same category as the FBI, highly confidential and above partisan politics. Dulles contends a probe would instantly cost CIA its invaluable foreign intelligence ties and destroy its morale and effectiveness. He makes no bones that he will resign if McCarthy has his way.

Dulles views have wide bi-partisan support in the Senate. Several months ago, Senator Mike Mansfield (D., Mont.), member of the Foreign Relations Committee, moved to safeguard CIA both from outside attack and internal short-comings. He proposed setting up a House-Senate watchdog committee that would have exclusive jurisdiction over all CIA matters. Mansfield modeled his plan on the Joint Atomic Committee.

Twenty-five Republican and Democratic senators signed Mansfield's resolution. Three of them are members of McCarthy's own probing committee—Senators Karl Mundt (R., S. D.), Charles Potter (R., Mich.) and Henry Jackson (D., Wash.).

But the only thing that has happened on this widely-supported plan is that it has been secretly shelved by Senator Jenner.

The proposal was sent to the Rules Committee for consideration. No hearings have ever been held and none are scheduled. When committee members began inquiring about the matter, they made an interesting discovery. They were informed that Jenner had referred the resolution to George Sokolsky Says...

Tenets Of Monroe Doctrine Could Have Been Applied To Guatemala Situation

The nullification of the Monroe Doctrine was a response to the demands of Latin American countries which resented the umbrage of a United States protectorate over them. In its stead appeared a series of multi-lateral agreements which effectively bar protection of the interests of the United States without the two-thirds consent of the Latin American countries.

The Monroe Doctrine formally came into existence in President Monroe's annual message of December 2, 1823, but its origin goes back to Washington's Farewell Address. Its basic principles were fundamental American policy from George Washington to Franklin D. Roosevelt. It is not fundamental American policy today and therefore the State Department and the President are unable to act soundly in the Guatemala affair.

The primary matters discussed in the Monroe Doctrine are:

1. "The American continents are not subject to colonization by any European power;

2. The United States would consider any attempt of the "allied powers" to extend their system to any part of "this hemisphere as dangerous to our peace and safety."

By "allied powers" in 1823 were meant Austria, France, Russia and Prussia, and by "system" was meant the post-Napoleonic reaction of the Holy Alliance.

3. Excluded European colonies were existing from these provisions.

With regard to the Spanish colonies which had declared their independence, the United States "could not view any interference for the purpose of opposing them or of controlling in any other manner their destiny by any European power, in any other light than as the manifestation of an unfriendly disposition towards the United States."

I desire to quote a few sentences from the Monroe Doctrine which are applicable to the Guatemalan situation:

"...The political system of the allied powers is essentially different in this respect from that of America. This difference proceeds from that which exists in their respective Governments; and to the defense of our own, which has been achieved by the loss of so much blood and treasure, and matured by the wisdom of their most enlightened citizens, and under which we have enjoyed unexampled felicity, this whole nation is devoted. We owe it, therefore, to candor and to the amicable relations existing between the United States and those powers to declare that we should consider any attempt on their part to extend their system to any portion of this hemisphere as dangerous to our peace and safety."

Were the Monroe Doctrine in effect today, the difference in system between the Marx-Leninism of the Soviet Union and the United States would be sufficient cause for the United States to intervene in Guatemala. The physical peril is the destruction of the Panama Canal; the spiritual peril is the spread of the Marxist system.

On October 24, 1823, in correspondence between Thomas Jefferson and President Monroe,

Jefferson wrote: "Our first and fundamental maxim should be, never to entangle ourselves in the broils of Europe; our second, never to suffer Europe to intermeddle with cis-Atlantic affairs."

As the Latin American countries grew in strength and pride, freed from European colonization by the Monroe Doctrine, they came to resent the Doctrine and there can be no question but that it produced a measure of unpopularity for the United States.

In 1923, Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes said: "The decision of the question as to what action the United States should take in this hemisphere arising in this hemisphere is not controlled by the content of the Monroe Doctrine, but may always be determined on the grounds of international right and national security as freely as if the Monroe Doctrine did not exist."

The Monroe Doctrine rests "upon the right of every sovereign state to protect itself by preventing a condition of affairs in which it will be too late to protect itself."

The Doctrine, when it prevailed, was only to be applied in cases of imminent danger to the United States. It was best applied not against a Latin American country but against a European country which engaged in aggression against a Latin American country. It was not limited to physical aggression alone, but also to the introduction of an alien "system" dangerous to our well-being. The Holy Alliance represented such a system: Marxism-Leninism represents such a system. The tenets of the Monroe Doctrine could have been applied to the current situation in Guatemala.

Should not be called a wife or a woman.

"Don't you men ever learn? Why do you think so many husbands BITE THE DUST? or don't you read the news part of the papers? They tried to beat their wives not for years only maybe the second time it didn't work. He got killed! the next husband don't beat his wife. He wants to live!"

"I know that mine wouldn't last the second beating! He would have no arm left to beat! as I would break it for him, and his soul too, and he knows it!"

"and be assured, Dear sir, that there are million of us women, wives, who feel the same, as I do! So why write such degrading junk as you did this morning?"

"You must know by now that you are not talking to morons! Didn't you find out yet? That you MEN aren't the master race? That you are NOT superior to women?"

How long does it take you to find out? come now Mr. Brandeis, WAKE UP!"

Women of America! We men have felt for a long time that we are really not the master race we claim to be.

But at least we have been living in a lovely dreamland. Please don't take that away from us.

How does a pretty girl go about winning the heart of a great baseball man? On Broadway

—by Walter Winchell

A Day to Remember

This is a world of intense anxieties and profound tensions.

Consequently, paying homage to the supreme fortitude and bright glory represented by Memorial Day seems almost an ironic absurdity.

When some nations have the unlimited capacity to destroy and the uncontrollable ambition to conquer—solemn tributes to those who volunteered the last full measure of devotion for peace—suggest a taunt rather than a hope. Nevertheless, this enduring reverence for our honored warriors is one of the nation's most compelling attributes. This national salute has an inspiring musical quality—like the sound of muffled drums.

The fearful vision of a world in ruins is mercifully superseded by the towering faith and valor of Americans whose sacrifices have been shaped in the image of a great democracy.

The meanings of our memorial are subtle and manifest as well as personal and national. They are represented by a country's vast natural resources and potential power. A lavishly endowed nation washed by oceans and warmed by faith. They are exemplified by the grandeur of our historical accomplishments—the vigor and vision of pioneers. They are illustrated by Constitutional privileges, wheat-laden fields or Broadway's glittering canyon. They are personified by the serene dignity of children reciting the Pledge of Allegiance. They are extraordinarily symbolized by extraordinary deeds of little known Americans. . . . It is a day to remember that freedom has never been gained without sacrifice nor preserved without courage.

This is a time to rededicate ourselves to the knowledge that this nation represents a true miracle. It was fused by the common determination for liberty and united by the invincible partnership of hope and valor. Many Americans endured incredible hardships while being sustained by idealism. The aspirations of the Mayflower Compact, the challenging concepts of the Declaration of Independence, the brilliance of the Bill of Rights—encompass a proud tradition motivated by respect for human dignity.

The tyrants arrive and depart—and return again. There are times when it seems easier to succumb to cynicism than cling to hope. However, there is firmer logic and security in constantly renewing our pledge to the aspirations of those who served as a national shield—and strive to measure our devotion by the extent of their allegiance. . . . Every schoolchild knows of the immense contributions by the Minute Men. Of equal importance and validity is being aware of what they relinquished. Some were wealthy who surrendered material abundance for the burdens of arduous duties. Many exchanged personal security for bitter peril. They traded the serenity of farms for the pillbox torture of battlefields. They sacrificed almost everything for a hope. But they never surrendered their conscience.

Progress has been achieved, despite the fearful and the vicious. And despite natural catastrophes and widespread indifference. Occasionally, advances are the result of gradual education. More often it is the consequence of a bitter victory. Tragically, the milestones of decency are tombstones of gallant fighters.

Peace is a word which exists in all languages. Peace, unfortunately, is presently almost non-existent in every nation. If the future is the lengthened shadow of the past—then past agonies have ominous echoes. It seems almost a thousand years ago that this nation was engaged in a tortuous struggle with the Axis. In retrospect, Hitler and Mussolini almost take on the aspects of fictional characters. . . . About thirteen years have passed since the fateful Pearl Harbor attack—without twenty-four hours of global peace. China, Greece, Malaya and Korea have been ravaged by war. Today it is Indo-China. A former "ally" is now our foremost enemy. Some of our foes have become friends we cannot trust. Communism has gained a beachhead in this hemisphere. The strongest allies are having difficulty maintaining friendship. Diplomacy has become an interminable battle of propagandists. Nations have forgotten that there cannot be justice without respect, progress without friendship and unity without unity.

Looking At Life —by Erich Brandeis

Hadn't we men better do something about it before it is too late?

If this goes on we won't be the masters of our wives and our households but their slaves.

First thing you know, we'll be using aprons and brooms instead of boots and fishing rods.

Arise men, let us put an end to it!

I told you about a male wrestler, who was licked to a frazzle by his girl friend, also a wrestler. She had made her marriage to him dependent on whether he could beat her or she him. She floored him and he lost.

Now, comes a dispatch from Wichita, Kan., about Eula Storey, 22, who is charged with simply grabbing her husband by the neck, when he insisted that he was the master of the house, and throwing him out of the window.

She, too, is a professional wrestler. She was arrested and held under $1,000 bond, but that won't do him or other men much good.

It may be the beginning of an era, an era in which all women are wrestlers or prize fighters, either professional or amateur—and man, the master, is a thing of the past.

Community To Honor War Dead At Traditional Exercises

Vets In Charge Of Program On Monday

Veterans' organizations of the Stroudsburg will unite Monday morning to honor the war dead with traditional exercises and a parade which terminates at Stroudsburg Cemetery.

Three musical groups will be in the line of march which will move from East Stroudsburg High School at 9 a.m. Over 350 persons are expected to take part in the parade.

Elmer D. Christine, Monroe County district attorney and State commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will culminate the exercises, delivering the main Memorial Day address at the grave of Harry Heller.

Wreaths will be placed at two monuments prior to parade time. First ceremony at 8 a.m. will occur at the American Legion monument, East Stroudsburg, and the second a half hour later in Stroudsburg at the Doughboy Monument, Court House Square.

Commanders, sergeants-at-arms, officers of the day and and post members of the veterans groups will participate in the preliminary exercises. Firing squad directed by George Mosher will sound three volleys in salute and taps will be sounded. Claude Mader will head the color section for the ceremonies.

This year's program is being directed by Earl R. Palmer, chairman, and Alfred Reisenwitz, co-chairman.

Victor Hochne, district commissioner for the Boy Scouts, last night issued a call to all Boy Scouts, Explorers and Cubs to assemble at the East Stroudsburg High School at 8:30 a.m. for the parade.

Disabled war veterans and burghesses of both communities will head the parade. Listed as marshals are Palmer, Reisenwitz, Edward Tweedie, commander, VFW; Elmer Heffer, commander, 30th District, American Legion; Ronald LeBar, chaplain; Stanley Smith, commander, 28th Division; Donald Dimmick, Marine Corps League; Foster Gould, commander, American Legion; and Paul Weary, district official VFW.

Three divisions will comprise the marchers who will head west on N. Courtland St., proceed on Washington St. then stop on the Broadheads Creek bridge where flower petals will be strewn into the water honoring Naval heroes.

Continuing, marchers will proceed west on Main St., halting at Seventh and Main for brief ceremonies facing the Doughboy Monument, then continue to Dreher Ave. and the cemetery.

In the line of march will be the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, Smithfield School Band and Stroudsburg High School Band. It was announced last night the East Stroudsburg High School band will not participate because many of its members are seniors and will be on the annual trip to Washington, D. C.

Comprising the marching contingent will be members of the VFW, American Legion, Marine Corps League, 28th Division, 109th Infantry, Co. G, post members and auxiliaries; Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army and Civil Air Patrol units.

At the cemetery Leo Achterman, Stroudsburg attorney, will serve as master of ceremonies. Rabbi William Flierwerker, of Temple Israel will offer invocation and benediction. The massed bands will play; firing squad will fire salutes and taps will be sounded.

In the event of rain all units have been advised to report to East Stroudsburg Junior High School for exercises.

Children who will be enrolled in the kindergarten and first grade at St. Matthew's School next term are to be registered at the school today from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

A memorial committee placed 1,400 flags on the graves of Monroe County veterans this week in preparation for the Memorial Day weekend.

This is the 57th year the tradition has been observed here, according to Howard Mount, director of Veterans Affairs for the county.

Tent Caterpillars Infest Counties

Harrisburg—Heavy infestation of tent caterpillars in five central Pennsylvania counties yesterday was reported by the state agriculture department.

The department listed the counties as Lycoming, Dauphin, York, Perry and Cumberland. A spokesman explained that spring weather conditions in these counties have been favorable for the reproduction of the insects.

The caterpillars generally attack the leaves of wild cherry and apple trees. The department recommends their eradication with a 50 per cent wettable solution of DDT to 100 gallons of water.

Nitroglycerin will burn quietly if ignited in small quantities, but explodes if heated or jarred.

Russell Smith Found Dead Beside Car

Russell D. Smith, 49, of 123 Maple Ave., East Stroudsburg, died of a self-inflicted gun wound last night, according to Dr. Charles Rushmore, Monroe County coroner.

Smith's body was found on Chipperfield Drive about 100 yards from N. Fifth St., at "about 7:15 p.m." by two passing motorists, police said.

Making the discovery of the body were Lena Arnold, 44, who lives on Chipperfield Drive, and Ira DeHaven of N. Third St., Stroudsburg, police said.

Arnold told Stroudsburg State police he was on the way to his home from Bangor. His car was traveling west on the drive. Arnold saw a car parked beside the road to his left, he told police, and slowed down.

As he stopped his car, Arnold told police, he saw the body of a man lying to the rear of the car.

At about this same time, DeHaven approached the spot and also stopped his car, the two men told police.

After looking at the body, Arnold went to a nearby home—the residence of Louis Lesoine—to call police, the man said to investigating troops.

Police arrived a short time later. Examination of the body revealed Smith had been shot through the chest.

When State police arrived on the scene the body of the man was lying, face downward, on a bank beside the road. The body was approximately seven feet from the right rear fender of the car.

Front seat of the car was blood-stained and a .38-caliber automatic revolver lay on the seat, police said. Under the revolver lay copies of two metropolitan newspapers—the top one dated Friday (morning), May 28. The paper was stained with blood.

The left rear door of the car was also stained with blood near the front part of the door.

Dr. Rushmore conducted a preliminary examination at the scene of death. Then the body was removed to William R. Thomas funeral home.

The coroner issued a verdict of suicide last night from the funeral home.

Smith was born in Reeders, son of the late David T. Smith and Mrs. Alice Rinker Smith, now living in New Hope, Pa. He had spent his entire life in the Stroudsburg.

For the past 25 years he had served as office manager of the Monroe County Water Supply Co. He was of the Reformed faith, and a member of Elks, Eagles and the Lions Club.

Surviving are his wife, the former Ruth Neyhart; one daughter, Joan Alice, both at home; his mother; two brothers, Ovin R. Smith, Kistmeyer, Fla., and Warren R. Smith of Phoenixville; three sisters, Mrs. Ernest L. Newhart, of New Hope; Mrs. Norman Piper, Bangor; and Mrs. Laura Thomas, Stroudsburg.

Private funeral services will be held Sunday at 2:30 p.m., at the Thomas funeral home. Friends may call at the funeral home on Sunday from noon to 2 p.m. Interment will be made in Laurelwood Cemetery.

Rites Conducted For C. J. Huey

Funeral services for Charles J. Huey, East Stroudsburg, were held at 2 p.m. yesterday in Lanterman funeral home.

Rev. Harold C. Eaton officiated. Interment was made in Lehigh Cemetery, Gouldsboro. Monroe County Joint Memorial Committee was in charge of military services.

pallbearers were A. Reisenwitz, A. Dellaria, F. Gould, R. Hauser, H. Carlton and B. Thomas; firing squad members were G. Mosher, A. Dellaria, G. Frantz, F. Gould and B. Thomas; bugler was B. Mosher; R. W. Edinger, E. Palmer, M. McElwain were honor guard members; H. Mount was in charge of the ritual; G. Frantz was chaplain; R. Hauser and H. Carlton folded the flag.

Four State Parks, Three Wayside Picnic Areas In District Open For Holiday

Four state parks, one undeveloped, one partially developed and the other two with varied facilities, in addition to three wayside picnic areas are now open for Memorial Day weekend use in the Delaware Forest District.

E. C. Pyle, district forester, listed the public park and picnic facilities yesterday. They are:

Promised Land Lake park of 2,400 acres has a 422-acre lake, 350 tent sites with facilities for picnicking, boating, swimming and fishing.

The George W. Childs Park near Dingmans Ferry is a picnic and scenic area with 150 tables, fireplaces and a mile of foot trails to falls and glen. It covers over 32 acres.

The three wayside picnic areas are: Snow Hill, four miles northeast of Rt. 390, south of Canadensis.

Pecks Pond, 25 miles north of Stroudsburg on Rt. 402.

Owego Trail, eight miles east of Hawley, Pa., along U. S. Rt. 6.

Tobyhanna Forest Park is a new area, to date undeveloped for general public use, although fishing on the 165-acre lake is possible as well as limited picnicking. Picnic area includes only two wells and one set of latrines on four to five acres with about 100 tables. It is not available for extensive use. Area is located on Rt. 490 about a mile north of Rt. 611 and Tobyhanna village.

The Big Pocono Overlook Park is the other undeveloped state park.

Acquired in late 1953 from the State Game Commission, this area lends one of the most picturesque views in Pennsylvania and the Pocono Mountain region. The vista consists of wooded mountains, lakes, farmlands, summer houses, hotels, summer camps and towns from an elevation of 2131 feet above sea level which gives one the feeling of being up in an airplane. Actually the mountain itself is 1060 to 1200 feet above the immediate surrounding mountains in three directions.

To date, improvements have been made only to the access road. The 1300-acre tract (primarily a camelback mountain) jutting out into lower mountain land can be reached by traveling six miles west of Tannersville, hence by Sullivan Trail, 1 1/2 miles, then left on shale and dirt road to fire tower and park.

Proposed trails include an additional one over Indian Rock Cliff to tower and also one around south side gradually climbing to top near tower. In the near future, it is planned to have 50 picnic tables, a toilet and water available at the top. No fires are permitted at present. Fireplaces will be installed later, Pyle said. Construction of a hard road is planned leading to the park and this may make travel inconvenient or impossible during week days in the early part of summer or fall until completed.

Police Report Theft Of Two Motorboats

Stroudsburg State police are investigating the theft of two motorboats from a Minisink Hills dock.

The boats belonged to John R. Lesoine, Tannersville, and J. L. Kerlin, 721 Scott St., Stroudsburg. Both of the lightweight craft were apparently stolen between 6 p.m. Wednesday and 9 a.m. Thursday.

Police gave the following descriptions of the boats:

Kerlin's was an aluminum "Arkansas Traveler," specially-built, 12-foot long, trimmed in blue. It was equipped with a 7 and one-half horsepower motor.

The Kerlin boat was covered with brown canvas when its owner left it docked at the Foster Minnick cottage, Minisink Hills. The boat had mahogany seats and was equipped with regular steering mechanism.

The thief or thieves broke a chain to free the boat from the dock, Kerlin told police.

Lesoine's boat was a wooden one, 10-feet in length with a 16-horsepower motor attached to the rear. The boat was light blue in color, police said.

The Lesoine boat was docked nearly a thousand yards from the point where Kerlin's boat was left after the latter had finished using his craft at 6 p.m. Wednesday.

Kerlin is offering a reward for recovery of his boat and motor or for information leading to their recovery.

CUT DOWN TO (FIREPLACE) SIZE yesterday in front of school was this ancient maple in front of Morey School in Stroudsburg. Three crewmen felled the maple then set to work with a compact motor-driven saw to turn the tree into small, movable sections. Trees in the school front yard are being removed to make way for extension of the borough sewer project. Stroudsburg school directors earlier granted borough permission to use corner of the school grounds for laying the extension.

Editor,
The Daily Record,
Stroudsburg, Pa.
Dear Sir:

It is evident from recent discussions in certain groups of this community that everyone wants to see an end to local traffic congestion and the two solutions most proposed in the news are: a by-pass outside the town or a by-pass within the borough.

I assume that every business man would like to stay in business. For that reason I am increasingly bewildered by the attitude of our merchants who insist upon pushing such a large percentage of potential customers outside of the borough limits. The survey that is so often quoted is reputed to show that seventy per cent of the cars had no business in the borough and had no desire to be there. Did the survey show what portion of that seventy per cent were desirous of stopping here if it had been easy to park? It is reasonable to suppose that a large proportion of that group, if coming from the urban centers of the New York or Philadelphia areas, would want to stop in town for while if parking were made easy for them. To bring the potential customer as close to Main Street as possible would seem to be the logical position for a merchant to take.

Once a by-pass completely misses the town there will spring up shopping centers along the route. We all know what they look like a modern building that will hold a self-service market, a drug store, a dress shop, a furniture store, etc. Are the merchants aware that not only the seventy per cent they are so willing to pass up may possibly shop there but that a sizable proportion of county year-round residents will also patronize such an enterprise? It seems improbable that the merchants of this community are willing to assume the financial loss involved in the inevitable change of our mercantile pattern once a by-pass misses the town completely. The best possible solution for our problem would seem to be bringing visitors as close as possible to the business area and then make it inviting for them to park.

The borough does not want to lose revenue on parking meters. The latter, although primarily a traffic regulating device, has become almost a sacred cow for revenue. Is it not possible to

Lesson-Sermon Topic Listed For Services

That evil cannot withstand spiritual understanding of God's goodness and all-power will be brought out at the Christian Science service on Sunday, when the subject of the lesson-sermon is "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, De-mo-ni-um."

Biblical selections include Christ Jesus' warning about the mental nature of evil: "For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies: These are the things which defile a man." (Matthew 15:19, 20 to 21)

The following passage will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Passions, selfishness, false appetites, hatred, fear, all sensuality, yield to spirituality, and the superabundance of being is on the side of God, good." (201:9)

"Something New Every Day"

We have sought from time to time to explain the details and features of Laurelwood, and also count that a privilege and a duty. There was a time when life insurance was looked upon with considerable disfavor, but that day has long since passed and all civilized people regard proper insurance provisions as a duty, and privilege.

There is another duty, another privilege, which every head of a family should recognize, and which fortunately an increasing number do recognize: the purchase of a cemetery lot before the actual necessity for its use occurs. Such a purchase is not considered a burden when the necessity arrives.

Why, then, should it be delayed until it becomes, perforce, a hurried transaction, performed under the stress of sorrow. This is repetition, but so is ringing of the church bells, and we shall continue to urge the merit of the idea as well as the advantages of Laurelwood, and construe it as a privilege and a duty.

This new rock-walled terrace is one of the newer sections of Laurelwood's landscaped rooms and overlooks the entire cemetery.

They get the best of everything . . .

When you put off the purchase of a Family Plot, you suffer the disadvantage of having hundreds, or thousands, select ahead of you. You must be content with what is left instead of being able to choose from the preferred locations now available. You usually pay more than today's really low prices.

If sudden need compels immediate purchase, the opportunity to pay comfortably on the installment plan is lost. And, often, because there is no time to investigate at the time of need, a cemetery may be chosen whose appearance does not begin to compare with the scenic loveliness and modern facilities found here.

Yes, those who look ahead get the best of everything! Why not, at this significant season, let us send you the facts today. In your own best interests, investigate locations, prices, and perpetual care provisions. "It is better to own a Cemetery plot and not need it, than to need it and not have it."

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

While keeping a wary eye on the weather, most people seem to be planning a Memorial Day week-end out of doors so maybe we could continue to muse about the world of Nature.

Except it's not one world but three. I have no quarrel with statesmen who contend that it's got to be one world or none at all. But, depending on your size, there are definitely three ways to see the blossoming countryside.

There's the eye-level world with which we're all familiar—or could be if we'd see what we were looking at instead of being so preoccupied with what we're thinking about.

There's the ground level world, which we sometimes become aware of when, chin propped on hand, on a blanket on the lawn, we lose ourselves in a miniature world where the blossoms are no bigger than a pin-head, and where tiny winged things balance on grass blades, and ants take picnics to moss forests.

But unless you're a 100-foot tall you never see the world above tree-top level. That's where you'd see the horse chest-nuts all in blossom like lilacs in a giant's dooryard. There's where you'd see the pines holding up their green candelabra of new growth, and smell the blooming locust trees, sweet as gardenias.

And the reason I prefer either the upper or nether world is because right now the eye-level world is full of tent caterpillars.

Blanche Mackey says her most delightful experience of late was a demonstration at the home of one of our older customers, a wonderful little lady as cute as a button who admits to eighty-some years. "She loves everything about Wyckoff's," Blanche relates, "but I was embarrassed to death on a recent visit. It seems she didn't discover until she was enroute home that she'd been wearing her hat backward. Now she's upset for fear Maude Walton noticed. You should hear her tell it—she's a scream, bless her!"

Styles being as they are, I doubt that even Maude would have known whether a hat was right or wrong. Anyway there's no much difference between "hat turning" and "head turning"—and a little lady such as Blanche deserves a second glance any day.

An evening bag has always seemed an extravagance, for one who goes out as rarely as I. However, there are times when my other type of purse is wrong—all wrong. That's why I'm so delighted to see this clutch type broadens in our handbag department at only $2.98. Silvery white, they would go nicely with any dress fabric or color. The amazing part about it is that these little bags are fitted with comb and compact, and are a perfect size for packing if you're planning vacation travel.

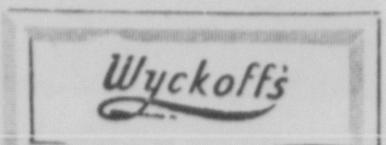

In the adjacent cosmetic department one finds other travel necessities that are as beautiful as they are practical. There are cosmetic cases, either fitted or unfitted, in a wide selection of striped and prift rayons priced from $1.50 to $3.95; pullman slippers in a neat silk container at $2.95; and even a silk laundry kit—containing soap, clothes pins, and other gadgets—at $2.95. Some of these can be made up in matching sets, and one's luggage would look like a million if it was ever subject to inspection.

But let's get back to the handbag department for a moment. I might mention that we have some other wonderful bags at $2.98 in pearled plastic and plastic that is either absolutely clear, or embossed with a wood weave, head effect or bamboo finish. Also at $1.98 we have a boxed Schiaparelli wallet of plastic and leather sprayed with 24 karat gold. If I owned this at the moment, it's safe to say there'd be more gold outside than silver in. It's smart though!

Have you been troubled lately by steak that just couldn't be cut with an ordinary dinner knife? (I knew you'd say, "Now who can afford that?") Well, whether or no I'd like to tell you about the new Marveledge steak knives recently stocked by our houseware department.

Boxed in sets of 6 and 8 these are priced at $12.50 and $29.50 depending upon whether or not the blade is chrome or stainless steel. Some have handles of polystyrol; some are inlaid with silver. Other knives without the silver are priced at $16.50. If you can't afford both these and steak, remember that these will last longer, and you can always enjoy looking at them. They're beauties really.

We are open until nine tonight, and it's your last opportunity to take advantage of our pre-holiday bargains. We won't see you again until Tuesday, but do have a pleasant weekend. And wear a poppy!

RILEY

By JIM RILEY

Ray Steele, well known in Monroe County and surrounding areas as a former baseball and basketball star at East Stroudsburg High School, got off on the right foot with Drummondville, of the class "C" Provincial League. Ray, the property of the Philadelphia A's, hurried his new club to an 8-2 victory, giving up a home run in the first inning and a double with a man on base in the sixth frame. Steele allowed three hits, walked four and struck out six.

The former East Stroudsburg High athlete reports that the weather is cold in Canada right now, but that his arm feels pretty good. Walter "Pop" Raph, former baseball star in the Bangor-Easton area, is the father of Glenn and Larry Raph, pitchers for Roseto, Blue Mountain League, and Bangor High School respectively. Art wall pointed out that the four rounds of golf played in the Tournament of Champions were the best four consecutive rounds he has ever played. He has had lower rounds, but never four back to back as in Las Vegas.

Gail Fegley, pitcher with the Eagles, an entry in the Monroe County Softball League, has come up with an idea that is worth kicking around. Fegley has suggested that pitchers with the first half division clubs at the first half work with second division contingents during the second half. Fegley believes that the first division hurlers should be drafted in some sort of a drawing by the clubs that finish fifth to eighth in the first half race. It certainly would do a lot toward making the present race more even for all entries.

If the drive for a permanent lighting system is successful at East Stroudsburg's Memorial Stadium, the athletic field will be used for everything from band concerts to track meets. It is quite possible that a track and baseball layout will be completed at Memorial Stadium before another year passes into history. Now that the "house - to - house" phase of the $18,000 campaign is complete, it is up to the industries and businesses of East Stroudsburg to finish the job. This drive must be successful for the sake of the borough's youth.

Eight golfers from the Lehigh Valley area plan to attack par on several different courses during the coming summer months. Among the courses on the list are Shawnee, Pocono Manor and Skytop, all located in Monroe County. Palmerton has really shaken up its basketball and football schedules for next season. Parkland, an annual court rival, has been dropped, while Coaldale, Weatherly and Allentown Central Catholic have been added to the list of foes by the Lehigh Valley League contingent.

Nazareth replaces Wilson Borough on the Palmerton football slate. The Blue Bombers will also open the 1954 gridiron campaign against Bangor for the first time. In the past Palmerton has launched the season against Whitehall. Switching back to basketball it might be good to point out that the Bombers will also meet Nazareth, Easton and Hellertown in addition to the regular run of Lehigh Valley League opponents. Trenton State Teachers College completed its baseball season with 10 wins and a single loss. The lone defeat was a 6-5 reversal at the hands of East Stroudsburg during the campaign just completed.

Gary Wynne, Bangor High basketball star, will enroll at Moravian in September. It has been brought to this reporter's attention that the triple hit by Stroudsburg's Dave Nevil against Catawba recently was probably the longest ball hit by any Stroudsburg player during the campaign just completed.

Campbell Favored To Win British Golf Title

By Sterling Slappey
Muirfield, Scotland (AP)—Bill Campbell put the pressure on Joe Carr at the start with a 120-yard approach shot a foot from the pin and never let up to whip the defending champion in the semi-finals of the British Amateur. The score was three and two.

Today, "Big Bill," known in England as "Sweet William," meets a non-smoking, teetotaling pub keeper from Rosebud, Australia. He is Douglas Bachli but hardly anyone outside Australia ever heard of him.

Same Score
The stocky Aussie eliminated England's W. A. Starks, also three and two, in the semi-finals.

Varsity 'E' Organization Collects $1,100 In Canvass

Outlying Areas To Be Covered In Near Future

Last night's canvass of East Stroudsburg homes by the Varsity "E" Club resulted in a collection of $1,100 in cash, club officials revealed following a post-canvass meeting of the various district captains at East Stroudsburg High school.

The Varsity "E" Club now has a total of $2,100 toward its goal of $18,000, which will be used to construct a permanent lighting system at Memorial Stadium.

If a lighting system is obtained it will be used for both athletic and non-athletic events.

The Varsity "E" Club donated $1,000 to the drive prior to last night's canvass.

Pledges
It was revealed after last night's collection that pledges had been received from individuals during the canvass amounting to $356.

Outlying areas from East Stroudsburg, which sends students to East Stroudsburg High, weren't touched in last night's drive. A canvass of this territory will take place during the coming week.

Spokesmen for the club revealed that they were well satisfied with the initial drive and are hopeful that the people not contacted last night will combine with East Stroudsburg industry and business to put the light drive over the top.

Officials of the Varsity "E" Club announced last night that anyone missing the drive last night who would like to contribute may do so by mailing their contributions to East Stroudsburg High School.

The next meeting of the Varsity "E" Club will take place on Tuesday, June 29, at which time officials for the coming year will be elected.

Phillies Blank Pirates, 4-0

Pittsburgh (AP)—Murry Dickson, traded by the Pittsburgh Pirates to the Philadelphia Phillies after the 1953 season, easily pitched the Phillies to a 4-0 victory over the last place Pirates last night. The game was called at the end of six because of a violent thunderstorm.

The victory gave Dickson a 5-5 mark.

Max Surkont, relieved for a pinch hitter in the sixth, was charged with his fifth defeat. He has won four.

Dickson scattered four singles and was never in serious danger.

Big Guns
Richie Ashburn and Granny Hamner led the Philly attack with two hits apiece.

The game was held up 16 minutes in the first inning because of rain.

The Phillies scored three runs in the fourth. Leadoff batter Del Ennis was safe after Surkont's bad throw pulled Buc first baseman Bob Skinner off the bag. Hamner followed with a double, scoring Ennis. "Snokey" Burgess promptly singled Hamner home. After Burgess had been cut down trying to steal, Johnny Wyrostek tripped and scored a moment later on an out-field fly.

The Phils put together three singles to add an insurance run in the fifth. The payoff single was hit by Hamner.

Santee To Make Mile Record Bid

Mission, Kan. (AP)—Wes Santee will call on a couple of teammates for racing jobs in his bid for a sub four-minute mile at the Missouri Valley AAU track and Field Championships here tonight.

Plan
American mile record holder at 4:02.4, the slim 22-year-old Kansas University senior expects planned striding from Art Dabell and Lloyd Koby, both accomplished half milers.

Thomson Retains Lead

Fort Worth, Tex. (AP)—Young Peter Thomson, the methodical Australian, snapped back with a one-under-par 34 on the back nine yesterday to retain his lead in the $25,000 Colonial National Invitation golf tournament at the 36-hole mark with 137.

Now an American and an Australian meet in the 36-hole final for the first time in the 59 years of this golf championship.

The match begins at 10 a.m. British summer time (5 a.m. EDT). Their afternoon trip around this soggy, 6,806-yard links beside the Fifth of Forth begins at 2:30 p.m. BST (9:30 a.m. EDT).

Campbell, of Huntington, W. Va., twice a Walker Cup player and now in his fifth British Amateur is an overwhelming favorite to win.

Campbell is so much the favorite that many fans among the 3,000 who saw the match yesterday went away saying, "Campbell is in. He just about won the

Pleiss To Shoot For Second Win

Norman Pleiss, veteran speed demon from Easton, will lead a group of fellow townsmen against the world in tonight's stock car racing program at Stroudsburg Speedway.

Pleiss won the initial feature event of the season at the half-mile track located next to the Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg Airport last Saturday.

Eastern drivers dominated the five-event card last week and the remainder of the drivers will be seeking revenge tonight. According to Pat Ciambrello, director of Liberty Stock Car Racing Association, a field of between 35 and 50 cars are expected for tonight's program.

Every event to be held at Stroudsburg Speedway this season will be promoted and sanctioned by the Liberty Stock Car Racing Association.

Five Events
Each of the programs will feature five events, the first of which is slated to get under way promptly at 8:30 p.m. There will be three qualifying heats of 10 laps each, a consolation grind of 12 laps and the main event of 25 laps.

Jim Robinson, manager of the Stroudsburg Speedway, has treated the racing surface with oil and reports that the track will be absolutely dustless for tonight's action.

In addition to Pleiss, some of the other better known stock car pilots appearing tonight will be Ken Wismer, Easton; Joey Cryan, Oxford, N.J.; Fred and Chet Fehr, both of Easton; Bill Bachman, Bangor; Harry Charles, Easton; Jim Delaney, Hope, N.J.; Ray Fleming, Bethlehem; Jim Eagle, Allentown; Vic Cesare, Pen Argyl, and a host of others.

Senators Pound Athletics, 12-6

Philadelphia (AP)—Washington scored at will for the first seven innings and piled up enough margin to survive a late rally last night as the Senators whipped the Philadelphia Athletics 12-6.

Homers
Jim Busby, Wayne Terwilliger and Roy Sievers homered for the winners, while Gus Zernial hit two homers for the A's.

Yanks Win On Carey's Single

Boston (AP)—Andy Carey's ninth inning single scoring Joe Collins from second enabled the New York Yankees to win a 10-9 marathon over Boston last night before 31,034 at Fenway Park.

title today when he beat Carr." The match against the jovial, well-liked defender from Dublin, was a great example of precision golf by Campbell. The big American hit only two poor shots on the afternoon round—on the fourth and ninth holes.

Campbell went into the lead on the 382-yard third hole where he scored a birdie three. His drive carried 262 yards. Then he swung an eight-iron as well as Ben Hogan ever did.

Opponent Claps
The ball stopped a foot from the pin. Even Carr clapped and conceded the putt to the tall, good-looking West Virginian.

From then on Campbell was in command.

Seoring
Two officials, Referee Berl and Judge Frank Forbes, had it even 2-2 at the end of four rounds. Judge Arthur Susskin had Jackson on top 3-1. The AP card also had it 2-2 after four.

In the first round the "Hurricane" tried boxing, a strange style to this unorthodox brawler who specializes in a swarming attack that has been described as something like a swarm of gnats.

Jackson was still boxing in the second and succeeded in opening cuts over both of Norkus' eyes. Norkus, 25-year-old Jersey City lad, nailed the "Hurricane" with a solid left hook just before the bell.

In the third the "Hurricane" began to get up steam while Norkus, handicapped by the blood streaming down his face, threw wild haymaker right-hand punches. Jackson was finding his mark with his hook although he ref for hitting on the break.

Dr. Vincent Nardiello of the New York State Athletic Commission examined Norkus' cuts after the round.

Unusual Sight
The Orioles in using eight beat the American League record of seven for one club that was set May 20, 1925 by Cleveland against New York. The record for the most used by both clubs in either league also was seven and the Orioles-White Sox beat that by two as Chicago also used a pinchhitter.

In the sixth inning, the Orioles gave the fans the unusual sight of a pinchhitter going to bat for a pinchhitter.

Indians Defeat Tigers, 3-0
Cleveland (AP)—Al Rosen slammed a home run with Larry Doby aboard to break up a scoreless tie in the seventh inning and back up Early Wynn's two-hit pitching as the Cleveland Indians beat the Detroit Tigers last night, 3-0. Rosen's homer was his 13th of the season and Wynn pitched his sixth victory against two losses.

Wynn's shutout pitching came after he had been laid up for a week with a back ailment.

Steve Gromek, who was traded to the Tigers after 12 years with the Indians, held the Tribe to three hits in the first six innings.

Catcher Frank House scored the Tiger hits with a double in the third inning and a single in the eighth.

Redlegs Shade Chicago, 6-3

Chicago (AP) — Ted Kuszewski smashed his 12th home run and Wally Post his eighth as the Cincinnati Redlegs defeated the Chicago Cubs 6-3 yesterday in the opener of a four game series.

Art Fowler, 30-year-old rookie right-hander, was lifted with one out in the Chicago ninth.

Frank Smith inherited a bases full situation. After Ernie Banks single scored the final two Chicago runs, Smith ended the game on Gene Baker's long liner to Jim Greenhouse.

Early Lead
Kuszewski's homer gave the Redlegs a 2-0 lead in the first inning. The drive into the right field seats followed a leadoff walk to Bobby Adams.

Losing pitcher Jim Davis' balk paved the way for the winners' third run in the second. Wally Post beat out an infield scratch, and was safe at second when Baker booted Andy Seminick's high fly on the edge of the outfield grass.

Fowler nudged both runners along with a sacrifice, and then Davis balked.

In the fifth, the Redlegs got to Davis for a two out walk to Roy McMillan, who scored when "Hank" Sauer fumbled the recovery of Gus Bell's single.

Johnny Temple blasted a one out double off the left field wall, and scored on Fowler's single over Ralph Kiner's head in the sixth.

Jim Brisan was the Chicago pitcher when Post homered with one out in the eighth.

Frankie Baumholtz, who got four hits, scored the first Chicago counter in the seventh. He tripled, and came across on Dee Fondy's sacrifice fly.

Lake Township Wins Second Game From Greene-Dreher, 7-1

Newfoundland—Greene-Dreher-Sterling High dropped its second baseball decision in as many attempts against Lake Township yesterday, this time by a 7-1 count. The game was played on the losing contingent's home field.

The loss was the third of the current campaign for the Stags, who won a pair of victories.

Lake Township lost no time in putting the game on ice as the visiting club blasted four runs across the plate in the top of the first inning.

Insurance
The visiting nine went on to score a singleton in the third and add a pair of insurance markers in the sixth.

Greene-Dreher escaped a shut-out by pushing its lone marker into paydirt in the fourth. Henry "Hank" Olsommer drove the marker home with a single.

Don Edwards pitched Lake Township to its second nod over the Stags by allowing only three hits. He retired five batters on strikes and didn't give up a walk.

Lake Township accounted for all eight of its hits off Bob Lupcho in five and one-third innings. Tom Klepach retired the visiting nine in order in the last one and two-thirds frames.

Bucs Place Page On Waiver List
Pittsburgh (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates put veteran lefthander Joe Page on the waiver list yesterday. He will be released Tuesday if no club claims him for the $10,000 waiver price.

Comeback
The 36-year-old former ace Yankee relief hurler comes from Springdale, Pa. Page attempted a comeback this year. He was signed after reporting to the Bucs' spring training camp for a tryout.

East Stroudsburg Little League To Open
East Stroudsburg Little League will open the doors on its 1954 baseball season today with a doubleheader to be played at the circuit's official field.

The first game will get underway at 1:30 p.m., at which time Mayor Jesse S. Flory is scheduled to throw out the first ball.

Action in the first contest will pit Heller-Owens-Howell against the Methodists.

Second-game activity will feature East Stroudsburg National Bank and Cramer's Lumber.

Possibility
In case of rain the doubleheader will be postponed until next Saturday and the opening game of the campaign will send Heller-Owens-Howell against Cramer Lumber on Tuesday.

There will be no parade this year, it has been announced by Dr. Evan C. Reese, circuit president.

East Stroudsburg's "B" League will also play a doubleheader today. HOH and Methodists meet at 10 a.m. and National Bank and Cramer Lumber follow immediately thereafter.

During the regular season the official Little League will play its games at 6:30 p.m., while the "B" loop plays at 4 p.m.

Adcock Takes Third Physical
Milwaukee (AP) — Joe Adcock, Milwaukee Braves' first baseman, took his draft physical examination at selective service headquarters here yesterday, but there was no report on the outcome.

Rejected
A club spokesman said he assumed results of the examination, the third taken by Adcock in recent years, would be returned to his local board in Louisiana. Adcock, 26, lives in Coushatta, La., during the off season and is registered there. Selective service declined comment. He was rejected in his two earlier examinations because of injuries to both knees.

THE GREEN THUMB:

Malathion Insecticide

All-Around Bug Killer;

Care For Raspberries

A good bugkiller: When a good all-round insecticide comes on the market, that's real news to gardeners. We've got one now that will kill just about every tough bug, including red spiders, and the name of it is Malathion (pronounced Mala-thy-own), a close chemical relative of Parathion, a deadly insecticide developed by the Germans in World War II, to knock out human beings.

A gardener's dream come true, Malathion is just as tough on bugs, but is less toxic to man and warm-blooded animals, than is Parathion. This all-purpose bug-killer can be used on ornamental, vegetable, and fruit trees, and will kill such tough pests as scales, aphids, lace-bugs, leafminers, red spider and most leaf-chewing devils.

The U.S.D.A. says Malathion is one of the safest insecticides to use for killing house flies. Mix one level teaspoon of malathion to 2 cups of sugar. Put this mixture in a glass jar, then punch a few holes in the lid. Each day shake out a thin layer of sugar grains over dry places where flies congregate. Flies which are resistant to DDT die within a half an hour after getting a touch of malathion. If your dealer doesn't have Malathion, tell him

it's a good item to handle. FREE:

If you'd like a free chart, "How to use Malathion," send The Green Thumb, Naples, N. Y., a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your copy. This guide has dosages all figured out for you so you can fight insects on ornamental, vegetable, fruit trees, etc. Please send in this self-addressed, stamped envelope, friends.
